

We would like to thank the contributions of Dr. David Elwell, Dr. Rita Lee and Dr. Jeremy Long for their contributions to the project, mentorship and connections. We would like to thank all survey respondents for taking the time to share their experiences. We would like to thank the Harm Reduction Action Center and Lisa Raville for assisting us in survey development alongside getting to hear from the experiences of those that use intravenous drugs and their interaction with the healthcare system.